

STUDY DREAMS TO CURE NERVES

Learned Scientists Seek to Give
"Unconscious Ego" What
It Desires.

CLINIC ESTABLISHED BY
STEEL MAGNATE'S GIFT

Colorado Woman Tells New Yorkers How They Can Succeed in the West.

By RALPH M. JOHNSON.

By Leased Wire to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—At last the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, present in each of us, are to be made to agree, and the nervous diseases which result from the conflict of these dual personalities are to be eliminated. At least that is the hope of the very able scientists in charge of the psychiatric clinic, just established by the gift of Phipps, the steel magnate. There will be thorough psychoanalysis, through the study of the "conscious ego" direct, and of the "unconscious ego" through dreams.

It has long been asserted by physicians that every person has the two personalities referred to—the conscious and unconscious. Upon this hypothesis is based what is regarded as a revolutionary method in the treatment of nervous diseases which was conceived by Dr. Sigmund Freud of Vienna.

Dr. Freud states his belief that one personality exists in a sphere of activity distinct from that of the other. In everyday life he is convinced that one personality is ignorant of the workings of the other; yet both affect the mind of the individual. When the conscious personality wishes for or loses for anything, the mind knows it at once, and the wish or hope is at once satisfied. But when the unconscious personality has a desire, the mind knows nothing of it, and there results the involuntary spirit of unrest, known as nervousness.

Among scientists working upon this theory it is an axiom that "every state of nervousness denotes something lacking by the unconscious personality," and it is to raise this boyce upon the unconscious personality that Dr. Freud has been working. For he believes the removal of the discord will result in the relief of the nervousness. Consequently he has adopted a method of treatment which he calls psychoanalysis or "soul analysis."

Woman Succeeds in Denver Realty. Though Mrs. Moritz Barthe is living for the present in Boston, she is running a real estate business in Denver, Colo., and has her office there. Mrs. Barthe is a Colorado woman, and votes out there, and she takes no stock in the rumor that woman's suffrage is in danger.

"My husband has been in Colorado twenty years," said Mrs. Barthe, "and I have lived there twenty. I have been in business, however, only for the last ten years. To tell the truth I do not know anything at all about business, but I find that it is not necessary. All a woman has to do is to make some people think she knows a lot, and she can do that often by not saying anything."

"When I took an office my friends asked me what I was going to do with it. I replied that if I had put $6000 into an automobile it would not have been simply for the purpose of looking

PUTS AN END TO INDIGESTION AND A SOUR, GASSY, UPSET STOMACH

Take a little Diapiesin now and your stomach will feel fine five minutes later.

As there is often someone in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapiesin in the house handy? This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach five minutes after. Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily see why it makes indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and relieves at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour, undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation and other stomach disorders. Some folks have tried so long to find relief from Indigestion and Dyspepsia or an out of order stomach with the common, everyday cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe theirs is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, gas and stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and, besides, poison the breath with noxious odors. A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapiesin.

DESTROYER IS NAMED FOR HERO MONAGHAN

Boat Will Be Launched on Feb. 18
and Will Commemorate Spokane
Boy's Death.

SLAIN BY SAMOA WILD MEN

One Against Many, Knew He Was Doomed, but Fought on,
Says Report.

Special to The Tribune.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 28.—To commemorate one of the bravest acts of heroism in the history of the American navy the torpedo-boat destroyer Monaghan will be launched at Newport News, Va., February 18. The sponsor for the destroyer will be the sister of the brave ensign who lost his life while endeavoring to rescue a comrade April 1, 1899.

Ensign John Robert Monaghan was a Spokane boy. He lost his life in an engagement with the Samoans near Apia, Samoa, April 1, 1899, in which seven members of an allied force of 107 British and American sailors and marines were killed, three of the seven being officers. His death was due to his determination to stand by his wounded comrade, Lieutenant Philip V. Lansdale, U. S. N., who commanded the American detachment of fifty-nine men. When last seen alive he was defending his wounded comrade single-handed against a horde of savages. In the official report of the fight Captain White of Philadelphia said:

"Ensign Monaghan stood steadfastly by his wounded superior and friend—one rifle against many, one brave man against a score of savages. He knew he was doomed. He could not yield. He died in the heroic performance of his duty."

A monument to his memory, erected by the citizens of his native state, Washington, stands in a public thoroughfare. It was unveiled October 5, 1906.

James Monaghan of Spokane, father of the late Ensign Monaghan, received the following message from George Von Meyer, secretary of the navy, and his eldest daughter, Miss Eleanor R. Monaghan, will christen the torpedo-boat destroyer February 18:

"The torpedo-boat destroyer Monaghan, named in honor of your son, the late Ensign John R. Monaghan, will be launched at Newport News, Va., February 18. The navy department would be pleased to have you name a young lady member of your family to act as sponsor at the launching."

CATTELO, NOT BUFFALO,
KILLED IN MONTANA

By Associated Press.
HELENA, Mont., Jan. 28.—Henry Avare, state fish and game warden, has returned from Plains, where he went to investigate the killing of buffalo by residents of that section. Mr. Avare gives a rather thrilling account of the efforts of Deputy Game Warden McCormick and a deputy sheriff to effect an arrest in the premises.

The names of the two suspects are not known, but they are members of a party of eight who had been in the hills some distance from Plains. Four of the buffalo were killed and the owner thereof went to the camp to demand reparation. He approached the premises and the inmates stepped outside and compelled him to quit the premises at the point of leveled rifles. He then notified the game warden and sheriff's office.

McCormick and the deputy sheriff, accompanied by the owner of the animals, again approached the premises and succeeded in placing the two men found there under arrest. At this juncture the other four members of the party, making the cabin their headquarters, appeared and compelled all to throw up their hands. The officers were armed with sixshooters and did not care to wage a dual therewith against rifles.

The officers, however, persuaded the men to talk the matter over with them, with the result that an understanding was reached whereby the two accused men accompanied them to Thompson, where they will be arraigned for trial. As a result of the game warden's visit it develops that the animals killed were part bison and part beef and in a mixture between cattle and buffalo. Because of this domesticity the game warden concluded it was a case for the civil officials, and the matter was therefore turned over to the officials of Sanders county for prosecution.
